SALVATION ARMY BONNET

Supplies:

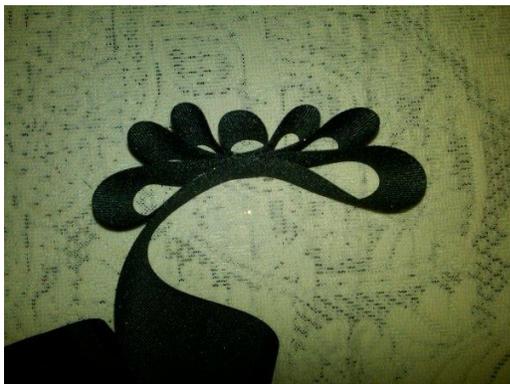

1. 1 black Amish/ Pilgrim costume felt bonnet, ribbon removed(Amazon.com)
2. 2 yards 3 inch Grosgrain black ribbon
3. 2 yards 1.5 inch Grosgrain black ribbon
4. 14 inches 1.5 red satin ribbon imprinted with "The Salvation Army" in white/ gold (printmyribbon.com)
5. 2 x 12 inch piece of batting
6. Glue sticks + gun
7. Good fabric scissors

Method:

1. Use 3 inch grosgrain ribbon & glue gun to make the bow.

1. Fold the ribbon back and forth, gluing each time so that it looks like this from the side.

DIY

SALVATION ARMY BONNET

1. Use glue gun to attach the bow onto the left-hand side of the bonnet.
2. Align the edge of the grosgrain ribbon with the outer rim/ edge of the bonnet.

1. Glue one edge of the remaining grosgrain ribbon to the edge of the brim of the bonnet, finishing off the edges.

Phase 1 complete.

DIY

1. Place batting between the grosgrain ribbon and the rim of the bonnet. Tuck it in securely.

1. Use the glue gun to seal up the top of the grosgrain ribbon, closing the batting inside the ribbon, creating a padded bonnet rim.
2. Fold and move the fabric so that the ribbon fits on the brim of the bonnet and doesn't lie flat.

Phase 2 Completed.

DIY

SALVATION ARMY BONNET

1. Place the Salvation Army ribbon across the bonnet as shown.
2. Make sure that the red satin ribbon covers the glued portion of the grosgrain ribbon – this will give a finished and neat look.

1. Turn the ends of ribbon inside the bonnet.

1. Glue turned ribbons on the inside of the bonnet.
2. Make sure that the ribbon is tight enough so that it does not slip.

Phase 3 Completed.

1. Cut the 2 yards of 1.5 inch grosgrain into two pieces of equal length.
2. Cut one side of each piece straight across and on the opposite side cut it diagonally.

1. Using a glue gun attach the ribbon (straight edge side) on the inside of the bonnet.
2. Allow this ribbon to dangle creating the bonnet ties (diagonal sides should hang down)
